DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTION

Barcelona Bona Nit (Barcelona Good night) is a program which deals with young people night activities. Young people are concerned and worried about the night, because it is their main place of freedom. Actuation areas:

- a) Enlargement and diversification of the night offer of sociocultural activities.
- b) Improvement of night public transport
- c) Mediation in night conflicts between young people and the rest of city agents.

KEY ELEMENTS

OBJECTIVES

-To enlarge and diversify the night offer of sociocultural activities, creating facilities for participation places and their self-management (youth houses, libraries, sports halls, study rooms, etc.)
-To improve and enlarge the night public transport (enlargement of metro and bus services)
-To establish strategies for the mediation of conflicts which occurs during the night (reporting young people opinions, discussion places with other agents, promotion and improvement of technical inspections about health, security, noise, etc...)

METHODOLOGY

To agree with several agents (sociocultural facilities, public transport, neighbours associations, city security, other municipal services, commercial private sector, etc) in order to open and enlarge several services during the night, and also to come to agreements between the different concerned sectors.
